

„Heco has never been so strong...“

“[...] The Celan Revolution 9 is one of the best loudspeakers in the €4,000 league.”

“[...] The Heco Celan Revolution 9 is a top-class speaker for a wide variety of reasons:

- Level stability and supremacy:
With the source material at least passable and not overly focused on the mid-tone range, the Celan achieves extremely high levels competently and calmly. There is no change in the soundscape and interpretation, no matter whether you listen at room volume or at considerably higher volume. [...]
- Bass power:
Without exaggerating, a very appealing bass foundation is provided on just about every track. [...]
- Voice reproduction:
Up to now, we have not heard such convincing, charismatic, sensitive voice reproduction from any Heco speaker. [...]
- Three-dimensionality:
The Celan Revolution 9 presents everything with huge three-dimensionality at all times, ensuring a particularly high experience factor. [...]

CONCLUSION

“Although the € 4,000 league (related to the price per pair) is highly competitive, the Heco Celan Revolution 9 is right up there at the top. This blend of cultivated, yet powerful sound, of fine resolution and level stability, coupled with excellent efficiency and suitability for many styles of music, make up the appeal of the Celan Revolution 9. The speaker is also convincing with its very high-quality finish and special styling, ensuring a classy, exclusive overall impression.”
